Dear Team,

We're always looking for ways to enhance our staff benefits package and will keep you updated as new options become available. While that work continues, we wanted to share some free or low cost discount schemes already available that you might like to sign up for - especially in the run up to Christmas.

These schemes offer great discounts and benefits that are well worth exploring.

If you have any suggestions and recommendations for other schemes we could share, do let us know!

Employee discounts

& offers

Discounts for Teachers - is a free membership scheme offering over 1,500 deals across shopping, travel, insurance, and more. This is open to education roles, including teaching assistants, office staff, cleaners, and canteen staff.

Eligibility: Sign up with your work email address or provide proof of employment (eg. an ID card, recent payslip, or P60) - I had to wait overnight before my membership was approved.

Deals on Offer: Highlights include a year's free Tastecard, 20% off lots of restaurants, discounts at Clarks, Go Ape, and many more retailers. (Remember, if the deal promises to auto renewal, after your term of free membership ends, to note the date in your calendar, so that you remember to opt out if you just want the free offer.)

How to Access: Browse the offers on the Discounts for Teachers website, where you can sign up and claim deals directly—no physical card required.

While this scheme offers many great savings, it's always worth shopping around, as some discounts may not beat standard retail prices or other readily available deals. That said, there are definitely bargains to be found that could be just what you're looking for!

Karp benefits

The scheme features discounts and deals on national attractions, entertainment, days out, theme parks, holidays, insurance and many national retailers. This service is free to local government staff and you can take advantage of any of the offers available, including:

- entertainment - discounted theme park entry and days out
- finance - special deals on wills, insurance and personal finance
- health - money off gym membership and fitness centres, pamper treats and golf courses
- motoring - reduced breakdown cover and money off driving lessons
- shopping - shopping and leisure vouchers, flowers, mobile phones and much more
- travel - fantastic deals on holidays, hotels, UK breaks, travel insurance and airport parking.

Blue Light Card

This scheme, which costs £4.99 for two years, recently expanded to include teachers. The Blue Light Card is a low-cost option that opens the door to thousands of high street and online discounts.

Eligibility: Open to teaching and support staff in state primary and secondary schools, sixth forms, and special schools. Proof of employment (eg. a work email, ID card, or payslip) is required.

Deals on Offer: Over 15,000 discounts from retailers and local businesses, including 25% off at Beefeater and Pizza Hut, 10% off Starbucks, and 5% back at Asda. The free Blue Light Chrome extension also checks websites automatically for discounts.

If you think you'll save more than £5 over two years, the Blue Light Card is a great option to consider.
